Idle Time Detection

Managing a team shouldn't mean chasing updates.

Managing a team shouldn't mean chasing updates.

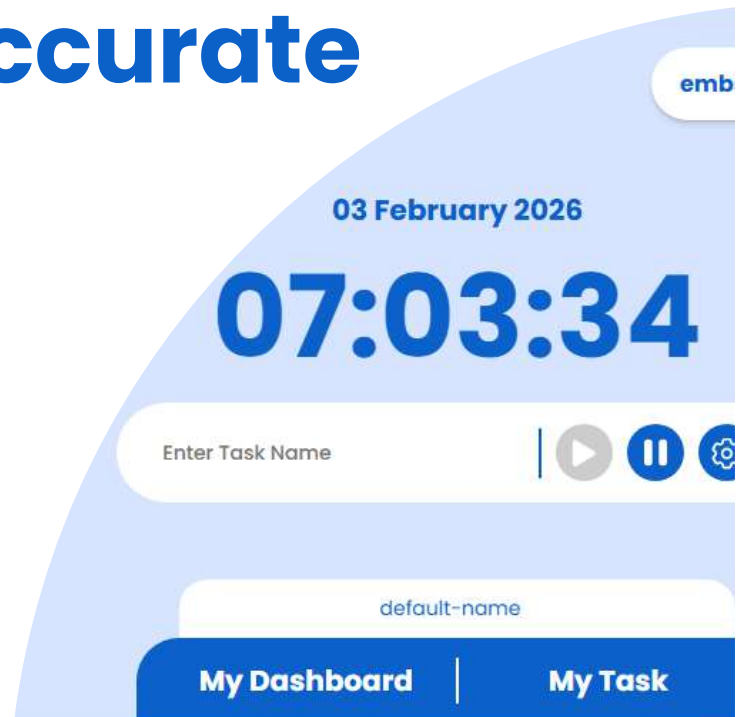

- Unclear work progress
- Inaccurate time logs
- Low visibility into productive vs idle hours
- No proof of work when needed

TeamTreck fixes this with simple, real-time tracking and clean reporting—so you can manage outcomes, not guesses.

Time tracking that's simple and accurate

1) Time Tracking

TeamTreck tracks work hours in real-time and keeps daily/weekly/monthly logs. It shows where time is spent on tasks and projects, removes manual timesheets, improves planning, and supports billing. You get clear hours per employee, better workload balance, and stronger accountability.

- Start/Stop time tracking
- Daily, weekly & monthly timesheets
- Employee-wise time summary
- Project/task time breakup
- Exportable time reports

2) Screenshot Monitoring

TeamTreck captures screenshots during work hours at set intervals to give visual proof of work. It reduces fake working, prevents disputes, and improves focus—especially for remote teams. The result is higher discipline, better reporting, and more trust (with configurable settings).

- Auto screenshots at set intervals
- Configurable screenshot frequency
- Work-hour based capture settings
- Screenshot history for reviews
- Better proof for work verification

3) Activity Level Tracking

TeamTreck measures active vs idle time using keyboard/mouse activity and shows productivity trends. It helps managers understand how time is used, spot low engagement early, and coach with real data. This leads to better focus, improved performance, and fewer wasted hours.

● Active vs idle time tracking

● Activity percentage / score

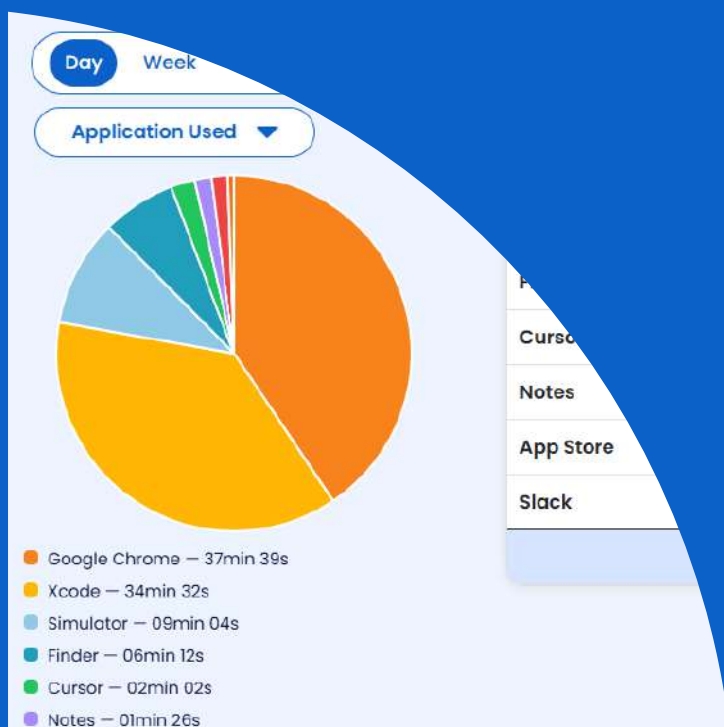

● Daily productivity trends

● Employee engagement overview

● Performance pattern insights

4) URL / Website Tracking

TeamTreck tracks visited websites and time spent on them during work hours. It identifies distractions, removes guesswork, and supports fair policy enforcement and compliance. You reduce time leakage and improve team efficiency.
